STATE OF MICHIGAN
ATTORNEY DISCIPLINE BOARD
ANNUAL REPORT

January 1, 2004 - December 31, 2004

Organization and Composition

The Attorney Discipline Board is the adjudicative arm of the Michigan Supreme Court for the discharge of the Court's exclusive constitutional responsibility to supervise and discipline Michigan attorneys. The Board, along with its prosecutorial counterpart, the Attorney Grievance Commission, is part of the bifurcated system of discipline described in Chapter 9.100 of the Michigan Court Rules.

The Attorney Discipline Board consists of six lawyers and three public members (non-lawyers) appointed by the Supreme Court. A member may not serve more than two three-year terms. All members serve without compensation. The Board's chairperson and vice-chairperson are appointed to one year terms by the Supreme Court. The Board's secretary is elected by its members. The Board's officers for one year terms ending September 30, 2005 are Theodore J. St. Antoine of Ann Arbor, Chairperson; William P. Hampton of Farmington Hills, Vice-Chairperson; and Marie E. Martell of Dewitt, Secretary.

Staff

Michigan Court Rule 9.110 authorizes the Attorney Discipline Board to appoint an attorney as its counsel. The Board's full-time staff consists of: John F. Van Bolt, Executive Director and General Counsel; Mark A. Armitage, Deputy Director; Sherry Mifsud, Office Administrator; Jennifer M. Petty, Legal Assistant/Webmaster; Kathy Leal-Paredes, Case Manager; Allyson M. Plourde, Case Manager; and Juliette M. Loiselle, Receptionist/Secretary.

Office and Hearing Facility

On April 1, 2002, the Attorney Discipline Board (ADB) relocated to 211 W. Fort St., Suite 1410, Detroit. The Board's facilities include hearing and conference rooms for the public hearings conducted by the Board and hearing panels.

Proposed Michigan Standards for Imposing Lawyer Sanctions

In its June 27, 2000 opinion in Grievance Administrator v Lopatin, 462 Mich 235; 612 NW2d 120 (2000), the Supreme Court directed the Attorney Discipline Board to explore the development of permanent Michigan Standards for Imposing Lawyer Sanctions and to report its proposed Michigan Standards to the Court within two years. On June 26, 2002, the Board filed its report containing proposed Michigan Standards for Imposing Lawyer Sanctions which follow the format of the Standards for Imposing Lawyer Sanctions adopted by the American Bar Association in 1986 but with revisions intended to improve readability and clarity, simplify the process of applying the standards, and align the Standards with ranges of discipline articulated in Michigan precedent.

On July 29, 2003, the Supreme Court published for comment proposed Michigan Standards based in part upon the ADB's proposal as well as alternate proposals submitted by attorney Donald D. Campbell. The public comment period has been extended to June 1, 2005. A chart comparing the Sanction Standards published for comment by the Court, the proposed Standards submitted by the Attorney Discipline Board, and the alternative proposal is available on the Board's home page www.adbmich.org under "Proposed Standards."

Amendments to the Michigan Court Rules Affecting the Discipline System

On November 2, 2004, the Michigan Supreme Court entered an order in administrative file number 2004-53 amending rules 9.124 and 9.126 of the Michigan Court Rules. These amendments, proposed by the Attorney Discipline Board, were implemented to protect the confidentiality of certain personal and financial information which must be filed by an attorney seeking reinstatement following an order of discipline imposing a suspension of 180 days or more. Under the amendment to MCR 9.124, a reinstatement petitioner is now required to file a personal history affidavit, including social security number and bank account information only with the Grievance Administrator. The amendments to MCR 9.124 and 9.126 further clarify that the personal history affidavit is to become part of the Administrator's confidential investigative file and may not be disclosed to the public except under certain circumstances enumerated in the rules.

Summary of Disclosure Requests

Under MCR 9.126(D)(7) and 9.126(E)(4), a person may seek disclosure of otherwise confidential information contained in the files and records of the Discipline Board, the Grievance Commission and the Grievance Administrator by filing a request for disclosure with the Board. Rule 9.126(F) requires the Board to include in its annual report an accounting of all requests for disclosure that have been filed with the Board during the year. There were no requests for disclosure filed with the Board under MCR 9.126(D)(7) or MCR 9.126(E)(4) during the year 2004.

Volunteer Hearing Panelists

The Board maintains a current roster of more than 480 attorneys appointed annually to serve on three-member hearing panels. Hearing panelists are currently drawn from 45 of Michigan's 83 counties. The 2004 hearing panelist roster is attached as Appendix "E." The Board has continued its efforts to appoint attorneys as panel members who represent a broad range of professional experience. With the cooperation of the Women Lawyers Association, the Wolverine Bar Association, and other special interest bar associations, the Board actively encourages the participation of women and minorities in Michigan's discipline system.

Hearing Panel Proceedings

Complaints submitted by clients, judges or other lawyers regarding an attorney's conduct are investigated by the Grievance Administrator and his or her staff under the supervision of the Attorney Grievance Commission, a separate agency. If formal disciplinary proceedings are authorized by the Commission, the charges of misconduct are set forth in a formal complaint filed by the Administrator.

Upon the filing of a formal complaint with the Attorney Discipline Board, the matter is assigned to a hearing panel and scheduled for hearing within 56 days. Proceedings before a panel are open to the public and are conducted under the Michigan Court Rules applicable to a civil trial in a circuit court and the Michigan Rules of Evidence. During 2004, the Board's hearing panels conducted 166 public hearings, an increase of 38 (+29%) compared to 2003.

The charges of misconduct must be established by a preponderance of the evidence. If the charges of misconduct are not established, the panel must enter an order of dismissal. Upon a finding of misconduct, the panel must conduct a separate phase of the hearing to determine the appropriate discipline. The levels of discipline provided in the court rules are reprimand, probation, license suspension and license revocation (disbarment). In a discipline matter decided July 15, 1997, the Supreme Court held that under rare circumstances a finding of professional misconduct may result in an order of discipline which effectively imposes no discipline on the attorney. Grievance Administrator v Deutch, 455 Mich 149, 163 (1997). There were no such orders finding misconduct but imposing no discipline in 2004.

Discipline orders must include an assessment of administrative costs together with the actual costs incurred by the Grievance Commission and Discipline Board, and may include an order of restitution to an aggrieved client. The Board collected reimbursed costs of $122,677.25 from disciplined lawyers in 2004, an increase of 42% compared to the previous year. Orders of reprimand or suspension may include additional conditions relevant to the established misconduct, including legal education, reformation of law office practices and personal counseling.

Unless appealed to the Board within 21 days by the respondent, the Grievance Administrator or the complainant, an order of discipline entered by a hearing panel including disbarment and suspension, constitutes a final order and may be enforced in civil contempt proceedings by the Grievance Administrator.

Board Review

In addition to its administrative responsibilities, the nine appointed members of the Attorney Discipline Board serve as the intermediate appellate level of Michigan's discipline system. The respondent, the Grievance Administrator or the complainant may petition the Attorney Discipline Board for review of an order entered by a hearing panel. The Board's review in such cases is based upon the record presented to the hearing panel and the written and oral arguments presented by the parties on appeal. Following its review, the Board may enter an order affirming, reversing or modifying the panel's order. A party or the complainant may seek further review by the Michigan Supreme Court by filing an application for leave to appeal. The Board regularly considers and disposes of various motions seeking stays of discipline, extensions of time to pay costs, consolidation or severance of pending matters and the institution of show cause proceedings for alleged violations of discipline orders. The Board held seven meetings in 2004, meeting four times at the Board's office in Detroit and two times in the Board of Commissioners Room at the State Bar of Michigan in Lansing. In April 2004 the Board conducted a public review hearing at the University of Detroit Mercy Law school in Detroit.

The Board conducted review hearings in eight cases under the guidelines of MCR 9.118 in 2004.

New Cases Filed

There were 104 new formal complaints filed in 2004. Of these, 94 complaints¹ contained original charges of misconduct following an investigation by the Attorney Grievance Commission.

An additional 10 formal complaints² were based solely upon the respondent/attorney's failure to answer the initial formal complaint, a separate violation under MCR 9.104(7). Such complaints are consolidated for hearing before the panel to which the original complaint has been assigned.

Twenty-three new cases were commenced under MCR 9.120 with the filing of a judgment of conviction establishing that an attorney had been convicted of a crime. Twelve new petitions for reinstatement in accordance with MCR 9.123(B) were filed in 2004. In addition, the Grievance Administrator filed two petitions for transfer to inactive status and nine miscellaneous petitions for enforcement of an earlier discipline order.

The 170 new files opened by the Board in 2004 represented a 5% decrease compared to 179 new cases in 2003. The following table (Table 1) illustrates the Board's annual intake of new cases since 1994.

Table 1. New Cases Filed, 1994 - 2004

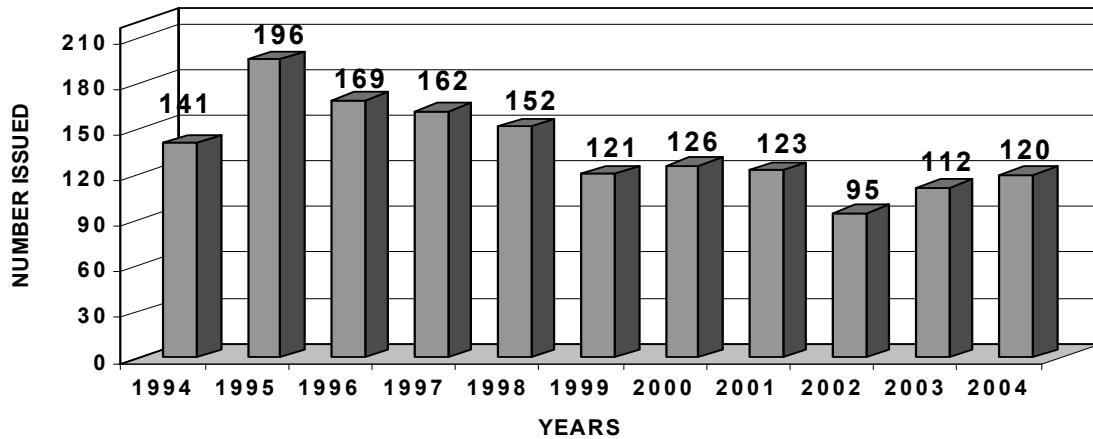

Orders of Discipline/Dismissal

The Attorney Discipline Board issued 159 final disposition orders in 2004, including orders of discipline, orders of dismissal and orders granting or denying reinstatement. Public discipline (revocation, suspension, reprimand or probation) was ordered in 120 cases, an increase of 7% compared to 2003. A complete list of the orders of discipline issued in 2004 appears in Appendix "C." Orders of discipline issued since 1994 are illustrated in Table 2, below.

² Designated "FA" in Appendix "A."

Table 2. Discipline Orders Issued, 1994 - 2004

Discipline By Consent

The respondent and the Grievance Administrator may enter into a stipulation for a consent order of discipline. This procedure, described in MCR 9.115(F)(5), allows the respondent to admit the charges in the complaint, or plead no contest, in exchange for a stated form of discipline. Written notice of the stipulation must be provided to the complainant and the stipulation must be approved by both the Attorney Grievance Commission and a hearing panel.

Fifty-three consent orders of discipline were issued in 2004, accounting for 44% of the discipline orders issued.

Consent orders were issued in the following discipline categories in 2004:

Type of Discipline	Consent Orders	Total Discipline Orders	% By Consent
Revocation	1	28	4%
Suspension (3 yrs. or more)	3	6	50%
Suspension (180 days but less than 3 yrs.)	2	17	12%
Suspension (30 to 179 days)	14	26	54%
Reprimand	32	41	78%
Probation	1	2	50%

Types of Misconduct Resulting in Discipline

As in prior years, conduct characterized by a lack of diligence, lack of competence and/or neglect of client matters was the single largest category of professional misconduct, accounting for 47% of the discipline orders issued in 2004. These cases ranged from an attorney's failure to provide competent or diligent representation on behalf of a single client to, in a few cases, complete abandonment of the attorney's practice. In some cases in this category, the attorney's neglect or mishandling of client matters was accompanied by additional misconduct including misrepresentations to the client about the status of the matter; a failure to return unearned fees; and failure to answer request(s) for investigation. (See Appendix "B," page 11.)

Twenty Michigan lawyers were disciplined as the result of their violation of the criminal laws. The fifteen felony convictions and five misdemeanor convictions accounted for 17% of the public discipline orders issued in 2004.

The next largest category of misconduct, accounting for 12% of all discipline orders, involved an attorney's mishandling of funds entrusted by a client or a third party. The discipline imposed in these cases in 2004 ranged from consent orders of reprimand in two cases in which the attorney failed to safe keep funds held in escrow or failed to deposit a retainer into a segregated trust account to disbarment in seven cases involving an attorney's intentional misappropriation of client funds.

Other types of misconduct resulting in discipline in 2004 included the violation of a prior discipline order (5%); failure to answer a request for investigation (3%); and engaging in a conflict of interest (3%).

Reinstatements

Attorneys suspended for 179 days or less are automatically reinstated upon the filing of an affidavit of compliance with the Supreme Court. In cases of revocation or suspensions of 180 days or more, the attorney must file a petition for reinstatement which is followed by an investigation by the Grievance Administrator and a hearing before a panel to determine the applicant's fitness to re-enter the practice of law. Attorneys suspended for three years or more must also undergo examination and recertification by the State Board of Law Examiners. In Michigan, a disbarred attorney may petition for reinstatement after five years.

Twelve reinstatement petitions were filed with the Board and assigned to panels for hearing in 2004. The Board or its panels issued seven orders reinstating attorneys whose licenses had been suspended. One reinstatement petition was denied or dismissed.

Pending Caseload

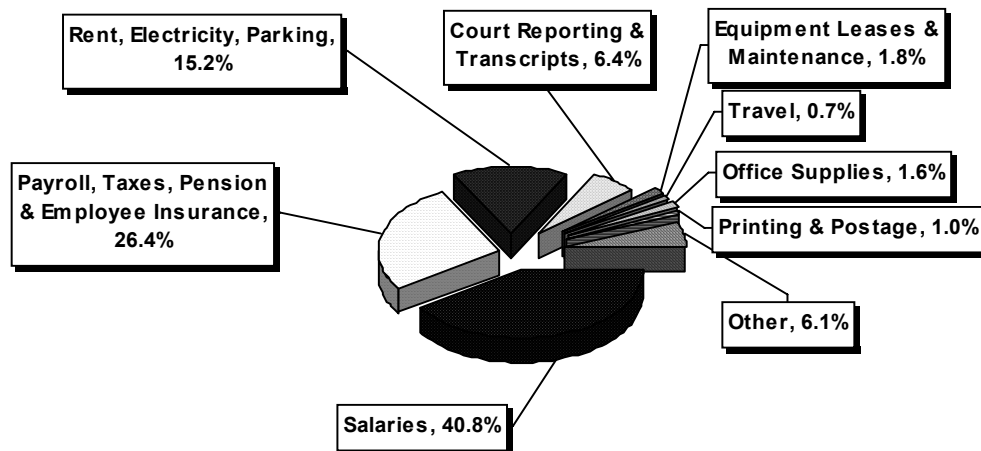

As of December 31, 2004, there were a total of 116 open discipline or reinstatement cases pending before a hearing panel, the Attorney Discipline Board or the Michigan Supreme Court, as follows:

	Pending 12-31-03	Pending 12-31-04
Supreme Court:	3	3
Attorney Discipline Board:	11	11
Hearing Panels:	123	103
Total:	137	106

Funding and Expenses

The Attorney Discipline Board receives no public funds. Michigan’s Attorney Discipline System (Attorney Discipline Board and Attorney Grievance Commission) is funded entirely from the discipline component of the dues paid by all active members of the State Bar of Michigan. Under the dues structure approved by the Supreme Court, annual dues are $315, of which $120 (38%) is specifically allocated to the Attorney Discipline System Fund. For the fiscal year which ended September 30, 2004, the Attorney Discipline System had total operating expenses of $4,055,849. The Attorney Discipline Board’s operating expenses were $933,290 - 5.3% below the annual operating expense of $985,869 approved by the Supreme Court. The Board’s expenses for the fiscal year included a one-time payment of $50,000, plus associated professional fees and expenses, for the Board’s share of a settlement involving the State of Michigan Department of Management and Budget, State Bar of Michigan, Attorney Grievance Commission and Attorney Discipline Board regarding a claim for uncollected premiums for post retirement health benefits. A chart summarizing the Board’s expenses for 2003-2004 is included below (Table 3). A complete itemization of the Board’s approved budget and actual expenses for the fiscal year is attached to this report as Appendix “D.”

Table 3. ADB Expenses 2003-2004 Fiscal Year

Outreach and Professional Development

Through its Executive Director and Deputy Director, the Attorney Discipline Board represented Michigan in the field of attorney discipline and regulation at the national level during 2004. In August 2004, Deputy Director Mark Armitage concluded his term of President of the National Organization of Bar Counsel at that organization's annual meeting in Atlanta.

In February 2003, The Board's Executive Director, John Van Bolt, represented the Board at a meeting with representatives from other jurisdictions to explore the creation of a national organization for attorney disciplinary agencies charged solely with adjudicative or administrative functions. The National Council of Lawyer Disciplinary Boards (NCLDB) now represents adjudicative agencies from 20 jurisdictions. John Van Bolt served as the NCLDB's president-elect in 2004 and assumed the office of president in March 2005.

Website Development

The Attorney Discipline Board continues to expand and update its website: www.admich.org. The site includes: recent Board opinions and notices of discipline; access to the discipline history of all attorneys disciplined in Michigan since October 1, 1978; a searchable data base including the full text of all opinions of the Attorney Discipline Board since October 1, 1978; and links to related sites in the fields of attorney discipline, regulation and ethics.
